

A training network on the design of precision therapeutics that target key glycan motifs implicated in cancer

Zaragoza, June 10th-11th

Monday, June 10th

Chair: Ramón Hurtado-Guerrero

9:00-9:15 h. Welcome and Introduction

Barbara Richichi, Ramón Hurtado-Guerrero, Marco Marradi

9:15-9:30 h. Introduction to Glycosylation in cancer

Celso Reis, i3S

9:30-10:45 h. Partners' and DCs' presentation | part I

10:45-11:15 h. Coffee break

11:15-12:30 h. Partners' and DCs' presentation | part II

12:30-14:00 h. Lunch break

14:00-15:00 h. Discussion among the Training Coordination Committee, the Research Coordination Committee and the Doctoral Candidates on the Personal Career Development Plan

15:00-17:00 h. Project management meeting

18:00 h. Tour visit to Zaragoza

20:00 h. Social dinner

Tuesday, June 11th

Training staff

Oana Maria Carciu, Rosana Villares, Carmen Pérez-Llantada
Digital Science Lab, BIFI Institute, University of Zaragoza, Spain

TE1 Open Science

9.00-11.00h SESSION 1 Open Science and research publishing practices. Essential skills for career development

TE2: Outreach communication and dissemination in EU projects

11.30-13.30h. SESSION 1 Promoting your research in digital media. Developing language and digital skills

13:30-15:00 h. Lunch break

15.00-17.00h. SESSION 2 Science communication and public engagement. Interpersonal and intercultural communication skills in Internet and social media

17.30-19.30h. SESSION 3 Presentation skills. Persuasion and visual impact in research presentations